Community Dinner

A Note from the Pastor

Hey everybody! Did you know that summer is upon us? That may seem so obvious as to be silly to say but I'm telling you for an important reason: church doesn't end just because it is summertime. Now I will grant to you that some things are a little different at Vance in June, July and August, like we rest from every week church school, but by and large activities continue with gusto. We have the worship service each Sunday at 10 am with the continued, quality preaching and music you hear throughout the year. We have fellowship activities like an ice cream social, community dinners, game nights and fellowship times. We are planning a terrific VBS in July, yes for children but as always, we need adult volunteers. So church is definitely still happening.

However, what often happens at Vance during this time is that people stop their involvement in the congregation altogether for three entire months. I know you have vacations and kids' summer activities but most of those last a week or two. I encourage you to stay in the habit of attending worship (and other church activities as well). Of all the world's major religions Christianity is the one most meant to be done in community. We need you here to help us along in our spiritual journeys – without you our lives are incomplete. And quite frankly without your gifts our congregation's budget is hard to meet. Traditionally the church collection in the three months of summer totals what one month is the rest of the year. That's tough too. Stay involved in your church. Stay excited about your church. Walk with God throughout the entire year and be amazed at how your relationships with God and others will improve.

Thanks,
E.
