OUR MISSIONARIES

Here, There, and Everywhere

It has been a busy month of fruitful travel. We travelled to New York City for a wedding of a former Design Movement student and spoke at one of our partner churches. We love adventuring as a family, so this was a great way to experience a different city for a few days. We're grateful for free missionary housing in the Bronx that made it possible!

Two days after our return from NYC, Caleb flew to Central Asia with his coworker Doug for a steady flow of meetings in two different countries. They were able to get updates from and encourage pastors in the current Kingdom Rain relational networks. They were also able to cast vision within new networks that included people we used to work with when living long-term in Central Asia over seven years ago. Caleb and Doug were gone for 12 days during a busy season as the kids finished up their school year with final concerts and fun events. We appreciate your prayers as God sustained Claire at home even as she continued her ministry while Caleb was away. We are now enjoying a sweet time of being together as a family before Caleb takes another trip, June 3-13.

Blessings,

Caleb, Claire, Lydia, Elena, & Aslan
